SPORTING Schools

Sporting Schools is a $160 million Australian Government initiative designed to help schools to increase children's participation in sport, and to connect them with community sporting opportunities.

Research shows that an early connection to sport can positively influence participation and encourage a lifelong love of sport. The Australian Sports Commission has partnered with more than 30 national sporting organisations to help schools deliver the following sports before, during and after school hours.

- » Athletics
- » AFL
- » Badminton
- » Baseball
- » Basketball
- » Bowls
- » Cricket
- » Cycling
- » Equestrian
- » Golf
- » Gymnastics
- » Hockey
- » Lacrosse
- » Netball
- » Orienteering
- » Rowing
- » Rugby League
- » Rugby Union
- » Sailing
- » Ski and Snowboarding
- » Soccer
- » Softball
- » Squash
- » Surf Life Saving
- » Surfing
- » Swimming
- » Table Tennis
- » Tenpin Bowling
- » Tennis
- » Touch Football
- » Triathlon
- » Volleyball
- » Water Polo

Since Sporting Schools started in 2015, over 6,500 schools have received funding. This has provided more than 3.4 million opportunities for school students to get active, engaged and have fun while sampling a variety of different sports.
